

Kentucky Coalition for Healthy Children (KCHC) – Logic Model

Vision: All Children and youth in Kentucky are healthy, safe, and engaged, with opportunities to develop their full potential.

Mission: To work collaboratively on policies and practices in and around schools that promote equity and improve the physical, social and emotional health and well-being of children, youth and families.

Inputs	Outputs/Activities	Outcomes
		Short-Term	Intermediate	Long-Term
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Steering Committee of stakeholders working to improve child/youth health. Coalition Members. Foundation for a Healthy Kentucky – Backbone organization and staffing. Kentucky Voices for Health – Executive Partner. Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child (WSCC) framework. Healthy People 2030 Children's Objectives. Evidence-based resources tools, policies, programs, and practices. Data collection, analysis, and reporting systems. Youth and Youth Advisory Boards. Financial resources to support the coalition. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Logic Model. Strategic Plan with a special focus on equity and reducing disparities. Evaluation Plan. Communication Plan. Communication with Kentucky General Assembly, other policy makers and stakeholders. Topic Specific Work Groups. Annual Summit with Members. Fact sheets and reports. Campaigns. Successful Coalition state and local policy development and proposals. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increased awareness among policymakers, stakeholders and the general public of the health issues, risk factors, and inequities faced by children and youth in the Commonwealth and evidence-based policies, programs and practices to address them. Increased awareness of the role schools and surrounding community play in improving children's health, reducing disparities, and addressing social determinants of health. Increased communication with policymakers to promote policy changes related to prioritized health and equity issues in the school setting. Increased school staff and student awareness, knowledge, skills, and attitudes related to health, wellbeing and equity. Identified strategies to implementing the Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child model. Identified elements of health, wellbeing, and equity that can be measured to define success. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved coordination among organizations involved in children's health in schools to strengthen cross-sector policies and initiatives. Effective communication with policymakers. Increased coordination with schools to implement and evaluate policies, programs, and practices to improve children's health, wellbeing, and equity. Increased school staff and student awareness, knowledge, skills and attitudes related to health, wellbeing and equity. Identified the successful implementation of the Whole School, Whole Community, Whole Child model used to mitigate the barriers. Increase in innovative and evidence-based policies and practices focused on improving children and youth health, wellbeing, and equity. Establish and strengthen data collection, analysis, and reporting systems to promote the value of the policies and programs to improve children and youth health, wellbeing, and equity. Parent, school, community, and policy leaders serve as champions for the work of the Coalition. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Improved children and youth physical health. Improved children and youth mental health. Children's and youth's basic needs are met. Reduction in disparities and disproportionalities and increased promotion of equity in schools.